

some things would be suitable topics for official proclamations just prior to City Council meetings, possibly to include the presentation of special certificates.

6. Citizen(s) Communications.

Stewart Dale Spencer addressed the Council on the matter of road maintenance. He suggested that the Council put some pressure on the county to finally decide to take care of some road maintenance before leaving it up to the city to take full responsibility. He pointed out the deterioration on North Commerce Street caused by the encroachment of vegetation. He also mentioned the worsening potholes on Pflugerville-Berkman Road. He suggested making a formal, written request to the county and suggested that if the county did not address the issues in a timely manner, the city would have to take care of the problem areas as soon as possible, before they turn into more costly repairs.
